Department Advisory Board

Aim

The Department Advisory Board (DAB) was established to contribute to the improvement of the academic and administrative processes of the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, to help the department achieve its strategic goals and to strengthen the department's relations with its stakeholders. The board performs duties such as improving the quality of education of the department, supporting the professional and academic development of students, and making suggestions for the needs of the sector.

DAB consists of department faculty members, university faculty members, representatives of public institutions and organizations in our city, university faculty members in Turkey, and our department student representative. In addition, representatives who want to take part in the advisory board can be elected as advisory board members, if they apply, with the approval of the department chair.

DAB's Tasks:

- Contributing to the determination of the vision, mission and strategic goals of the department.
- To make suggestions to ensure that training programs are up-to-date and in line with industry needs.
- Contributing to the evaluation and development of existing undergraduate and graduate programs.
- To contribute to increasing the academic quality of the department by suggesting projects and activities that will increase the academic success of students.
- Developing collaborations with the public, private sector and non-governmental organizations.
- Strengthening the department's relations with society and increasing its social contribution.
- Providing support to accreditation processes and helping the department maintain quality standards.
- Monitoring the department's performance indicators and providing improvement suggestions for these indicators.
- In line with these aims and duties, it is aimed that the Department Advisory Board will make significant contributions to the overall success and continuous development of the Department of Political Science and Public Administration.
- DAB meets every year in the fall semester and forwards the decisions taken to the department chair.
